HAM SHAG

Sad as it may seem, I have been appointed to the only position that no one wanted (Edit Hare). So, I have decided to issue a regular magazine – again.

Many have been secretly wishing to know more about the inner workings of The Hash & what is actually going on. So, this renewed magazine “will fill you in”.

There will be the usual popular articles on such things as: Recipes; Politics; Religion; Medical Problems, and the answers to “The World, The Universe, and Everything”.

There will be a column for “Letters to The Edit Hare” for anything on your mind. Like: how impressed you are with The Shag, through to comments on the latest runs.

There will be a personal column for “Questions to Uncle Perky” for advice on your latest, deepest, personal worries and how to be helped. Some cannot understand why they get cold running across muddy fields in the rain in winter in little clothing – and even why they do it. There will be answers to this and other such Knotty problems.

To those who are on the WhatsApp group you will already know the results of the voting at the AGPU. The appointments are listed below for those not in the Group. There was fierce fighting for the posts and because of this, and of complaints and rumours of improper vote casting last year, it was decided we should appoint two scrutineers to oversee the event. These are as listed below. They were chosen for their ability to stay sober and, having witnessed lots of chaos before. It was sad to see X-Rated cry so profusely at not being appointed GM again, but the Meeting felt it necessary in case we became complacent at being controlled the way we had been.

Committee

Grand Master – Stiff

Joint Masters - X-Rated & L' Escargot

Hare Razor - Spider-Man

Religious Advisor - Le Caniveau

Beer Master - Lightweight

Hash Cash - FC

Haberdasher - Fruitcake

Edit Hare - Perky

Mee Mee - LittleSWanker

Soc. Com – Fruitcake & Snail's Nuts

AGPU Scrutineers –

Sir Lunchi of BH3, Sleepy of BH3

Membership Cards: These will be issued after consultation with the Treasurer on who are paid-up members.

The intention is for a Shag once a month. If you cannot handle a Shag once a month then let me know. And, it will be produced ONLY in traditional Chinese paper form – this will encourage you to attend the Hash weekly to ensure you get a copy.

SO, it is now up to you all - to support this magazine with as much vibrant news as you can.
