Now you can get excited, this is the SECOND one.

So, what has happened since the last issue? Best to get the bad news over first – JED has gone to the rabbit chasing Hash in the sky (actually, Little Solsbury Hill). K & A's mascot for many years is no more. So, we are looking for someone to take his place to ps on trees – any offers? Due respect was given at the start of the 856 Hash by staging one minute's silence. Commiserations to Cathy who has not stopped crying since, and congratulations to Dennis who has maintained his usual annoying self.

Next most disturbing bad news is that subs are due. Hence to receive a copy of this much wanted Shag - £15 to Hash Cash.

Now for the good news: err, hmm, mmm, yes well ??, perhaps in the next issue.

SECOND MAJOR CONCERN (first was in last issue) Linked to the NAME of the Chapter is the LOGO (the current one is not a facsimile of Jed). As with the name, the current one does not really represent the group's character, history, or location, etc. So thinking caps on again and if you're interested submit a design to me. Remember, a simple design will make reproduction easier for when printing, etc (perhaps?). And, you could submit this along with a suggestion for a new name (which are now flooding in).

The winner will receive a free special folder to keep these exciting Shags in pristine condition in. (Oh, and the honour of changing the face of the Hash for ever.)

FOR NOVICES to the worshipful art of HASHING, and for those who do it wrong, this is the regular feature of HOW TO (the K&A way).

HOW TO: 1.2 Back Checks: i.e. a  sign indicating that you have been p*ss*d about, and that you are up the wrong trail erroneously marked as though it was the correct trail. The correct trail being some distance back along where you have just run. Some Hash Chapters do this, some on a grand scale. However, K&A Hashers who find these become greatly annoyed.

A New Feature to the Shag: PRONUNCIATION

First word, CASTLE. Say after me K 'A' S S L E (A S S as in B A S S). Some in this nek't'wuds are under the false impression it should be pronounced C A H S T E L.

The word to learn in the next issue: is BATH.
