HAM SHAG

1710 - 31/05/23 - Queen's Head, Box, (Hare - X-Rated)

Good anticlockwise run. Almost due south from the OFF -up -up -up to Henley and then along / through White Wood. Down, down, to the A365 and across and up – up – up –to the entrance to Hazlebury Manor. Unfortunately, we were not expected and hence no welcome by the Lord of the Manor. Spotting wild orchids on the driveway. A quick dash through Thorn Wood and the ON INN. Well done X-rated.

1711 - 07/06/23 - The Waldegrave Arms, East Harptree (Hare - Chick Pea)

Apparently a First-time from this pub. Almost ran out of beer. In fact, it did – of Butty Bach - but then a real lifesaver came on: Timothy Taylors Landlord. Superb weather and a well-set run by Chickpea, although he was a little lax in not clearing the obstacles before the run through the wooded section. The pub had welcome signs out for us: -

We did have one troublesome Hasher who had to be put in the naughty corner.

And, we had the “Bent Elbows Hash” join us.

1712 - 14/06/23 - Wellow public car park, - On On @ Fox and Badger, (Hares; Shrimp and Baguette)

As I was not present, I assume this ran was run.

1713 - 21/06/23 - Druid's Arms, Stanton Drew (Hare – Lightning)

Solstice – Including attendance by Druids (there were about 18 of us). A good level run down the river to Pensford and back up, but no opportunity to worship at the stones. However, there was much worshipping of the sausage (& chips) and swearing at the price. Five Down-Downs were delayed due to chip arrival.

1714 - 28/06/23 - Barbecue Hash! "Spider's Web", Cadbury Road, Keynsham (Hare – Spider)

Hard to believe but this was the n'th consecutive annual run that did exactly the same trail, hence I shall not describe it in detail and bore everyone. And, as usual, as per the purpose of the event was a lovely BBQ cooked by specially brought in chefs.

1715 - 05/07/23 - Old Rudloe Manor Lay-by. On Inn to the Hare and Hounds. Pickwick. (Hare – Perky)

What a lovely summer evening in the beautiful English countryside, only to be spoilt by a crap run and a crap pub. Yet another pub to be added to the Pubs With No Beer (although they did put another barrel of crap beer on eventually). I overheard several hashers whispering “I hope Perky does not set another run”. I also overheard Perky mumbling to himself at the bar: “I hope I don’t have to set another run. The good thing is, that we can now list it as an area not to set a run in.

And once again by the famous songwriterLightweight..... >>>>>>>

69/Lightweight

Perk’s run, Perky’s run here we are again

Hashing each week outside of Bath
Trying not to run where we did before
Country trail with the Harriers voice
So close to the city, we ain't got much choice

No council estates or tower blocks
Countryside abound we don’t get the knocks
But the trails round here they are so nice
Stop meeting in layby’s take our advice

Corsham boys, Corsham boys
Laced up trainers and beers we enjoy
Corsham boys, Corsham boys
They call us the hashing cowboys

It's down to the pub for the local ale
There’s none in the pumps, our faces are pale
But we’ll go for a cider instead
Don't worry about us, we're gonna be alright

Corsham boys, Corsham boys
Laced up trainers and beers we enjoy
Corsham boys, Corsham boys
They call us the hashing cowboys

Rapunzel out front leading the pack
Andy Bath just glad to be back
Too far for Knead!

Corsham boys, Corsham boys
Laced up trainers and beers we enjoy
Corsham boys, Corsham boys
They call us the hashing cowboys

NEW FEATURE - RECIPES

This week – Black Puddings

The best black puddings happen to be made in Lancashire and have won many awards. The traditional and most tasty are those in a small loop (horse shoe shape) with ends tied together. They tend to have generous amounts of fat within and ample blood, and ample seasoning. They are generally boiled for 10 mins or so, removed from the heat and split open lengthways, and vinegar added. The skins are not normally eaten.

Unfortunately, “down south” this type is difficult to find and puddings are usually slices of the product that need to be fried. Some are quite tasty but not as good as the real thing. If sufficient numbers of Hashers request, I will arrange a postal delivery in bulk.
